THE HI-FI'S— Will Yer Won't Yer; She's The One (Pye N 15635)—The Hi-Fi's seem to enjoy life judging by the smiling sound they produce on this disc. Two guitars organ and drums push the song along towards the sellers. Flip is less straightforward but moves well. ANDEE SILVER—Too Young To Go Steady; Sleeping Beauty	<h1 style="margin: 0;">SMILING SOUND FROM SWINGING HI-FI'S</h1>

'A HARD DAYS' NIGHT'

Featured at the Playhouse Cinema tomorrow (Sunday) for seven days, is 'A Hard Day's Night', starring the Beatles. The story is of 36 hectic hours in the lives of the popular foursome. It begins with John, George and Ringo at a railway station, fighting their way through hundreds of admiring young ladies to get to their compartment, where they meet up with Paul and his grandfather who has started a campaign of disunion, starting with Norm, the Beatles' road manager, and Shake, the general 'digs' body, getting at each other's throats. To keep his grandfather out of further trouble, Paul has to lock him in the luggage van, where Paul and his fellow Beatles begin music making.

When the group arrives in London, the happy four are plunged into the bustle of the television world. Press conferences, rehearsals and the make-up room, still with grandfather up to his pranks. He plays on the fact that Ringo is feeling the strain of his work, and says that he should take a walk into the outside world. This Ringo does, but soon manages to get himself arrested—shortly before the group's show is about to be televised in front of
